

All sessions are in the Park Library Auditorium
at Central Michigan University

Session I: 2 PM on 9/27

Moderator: Joshua Smith, Central Michigan University

On Nāgārjuna's Ratnāvali

Amber Carpenter
University of York

Compassion and the Net of Indra

Graham Priest
City University of New York Graduate Center
University of St. Andrews

Response: Gary Fuller Central Michigan University

---

Session II: 3:35 PM on 9/27

Moderator: Guy Newland, Central Michigan University

The connection between ontology and ethics in Madhyamaka

Jan Westerhoff
University of Durham

Buddhist Ethics in the Context of Conventional Truth: Path and Transformation

Jay Garfield
Smith College
Melbourne University Central University of Tibetan Studies

Response: Robert Stecker Central Michigan University

(over)

All sessions are in the Park Library Auditorium
at Central Michigan University

Session III: 9 AM on 9/28

Moderator: David Smith, Central Michigan University

Prāsaṅgika's Moral Naturalism: Zhig pa (vināśa) dNgos po (bhāva) Theory

Sonam Thakchoe
University of Tasmania

How Does Merely Conventional Karma Work?

Guy Newland
Central Michigan University

Response: Koji Tanaka University of Auckland

---

Session IV: 10:35 AM on 9/28

Moderator: John Wright, Central Michigan University

From Madhyamaka to Consequentialism: A Roadmap

Charles Goodman
Binghamton University

Does 'Buddhist Ethics' Exist?

Mark Siderits
Seoul National University

Response: Bronwyn Finnigan Marquette University